- Student visa condition relating to course progress and or attendance as appropriate
- Student referrals
- Non-academic student support is responsible for Pre-Training Review of the student to identify a gap and learning needs of the students.
- They are also responsible for referring students to welfare related external support services to assist students with issues such as accommodation, health services etc.

Students can access the student support officer directly or via student administrations and an appointment will be organised. The contact details of the Student Support Officers and all staff delegated with designated responsibilities are made available to international students at the time of Orientation Program.

Although Central Australian College has appointed “Student Support Officer” all the staff will be involved on student support. Chain of management team Director, CEO, Director of studies, Training Manager, Trainers and all admin staff are designated the responsibility to support students when needed.

2. Pre-Enrolment Support

In the pre-enrolment process student support is provided by giving students pre-enrolment information regarding the courses we offer, enrolment procedures, career counselling living and working in Australia, student visa obligations, arrival advises and information by the Marketing and Administrative Officers. These information are also available in the College Prospectus and Student Handbook published in the CAC website.

a. Pre- enrolment information

Prior to the enrolment students are guided to the Pre- enrolment information clearly outlined in Student Prospectus and the CAC website. Relevant Marketing personnel are designated with the responsibility of providing the pre-enrolment information which shall help students in making informed decision prior to enrolment in the course. For detail refer to Enrolment Policy and Procedure.

b. Identifying LLN support prior to enrolment or commencement

LLN Test would be administered prior to enrolment into qualifications within CAC’s scope of registration. Test would be administered by qualified LLN Trainer and Assessor.

The main aim of the test is to identify particular skills of the student such as literacy, numeracy and English language, in order to meet the requirement of qualification they wish to enrol in. If a gap is identified learners would be recommended to undertake foundation skills courses or other strategies would be adopted to make support available, prior to enrolment in that qualification.

satisfactory results in their studies by attending weekly Learning support sessions organised by the Training Department.

All students' academic progress and attendance are monitored, and guidance and support provided where non satisfactory results are identified. Students are encouraged to attend the support session.

ii. Catch up classes – Catch up classes are organised for students who need Academic support.

iii. One on one support - A student can get an appointment with 'Student support officer' to discuss any academic, attendance or other related issues. The student support officer would provide advice and guidance, or referral, where required. Students would be required to book time with them by calling (03) 9687 4275 or inquiring at CAC Administration.

b. Student welfare-services

International students may face many issues that may affect their academic, social or personal life while they are adjusting to Australian lifestyle. Students have access to the Support officer through normal RTO hours to gain advice and guidance on personal, financial or accommodation issues.

- Student Support Officers can be contacted during office hours Monday to Saturday from 9:00 AM to 5:30 PM.
- In case of emergency students have the facility to contact Student Support Officers 24 hours in a day when required. Students can call 0422 443 268 or 0434 282 260. Alternatively, if they need police, fire or ambulance they are advised to dial national emergency number "000".
- Where the Student Support Officer feels further support should be gained, a referral to an appropriate support service will be organised. Assistance with referrals made on behalf of students to external services are at no cost to the student, however, the cost of external services is not included in course fees and are the responsibility of the student.
- CAC will make reasonable effort to assist the student to locate appropriate external support services that are free or subsidised. Where available CAC will advise students of possible funding for the particular service.
- For medical or psychological/counselling student would be referred to GP. In these circumstances some of the cost may be covered by their Health Care Insurance.
- While CAC does not offer accommodation services or take any responsibility for accommodation arrangements CAC is able to refer students to appropriate accommodation services and are always available to discuss any issues or concerns a student may have with their accommodation arrangements.

Student Support Services Policy and Procedures

- All students are encouraged to have accommodation organised prior to arrival in Australia but the Student Support Officer can refer students to appropriate accommodation services.
- Student Administration will always have an up to date list of medical professionals within access from CAC location and any student with medical concerns should inform the student support officer who will assist them in finding an appropriate medical professional. (See CAC Prospectus and CAC International Student Handbook for referral services)

5. Student support upon completion

Students who complete all assessment requirements for a qualification will be awarded a certificate corresponding to the completed course. Those completing assessment requirements for part of a qualification will receive a Statement of Attainment for completed competencies. Completion of courses does not guarantee an employment outcome. Formal requirements other than educational qualifications (e.g. licensing, professional registration etc.) may apply to some occupations.

Once students successfully complete their course they will be provided with a guidance about your further education and employment pathways by the student support officers.

Duty of care

Duty of care refers to the legal obligation of organizations and individuals to treat others and the public in such a way as to avoid the risk of foreseeable injury. Duty of care applies to all international students enrolled at CAC. It provides details on the action to be taken and the follow up required to support the safety and wellbeing of student and staff members involved in a critical incident, and the recording of particulars of the incident.

For more information about duty of care and its procedures refer to critical incident policy and procedures.
